

I am opposed to further media consolidation. The FCC has a duty to support a diversity of media voices. Please do not change your regulations - please do not allow media companies to own more of the media in major markets.